EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Richard Sutkus on November 23, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 15, 17-22, 28, 29 and 31-33 were cancelled.

In claim 34, line 6, [nitratroethylnitramine] was replaced with --- nitratroethylnitramine---.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 34-37 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art of record is the references cited in the previous office action. Taylor, US 6,096,147, discloses airbag compositions comprising 2-15% of a solvent soluble binder, an oxidizer, which may be basic copper nitrate, and a fuel, which may be guanidine nitrate. A non-exclusive list of soluble binders includes cellulose acetate butyrate. The reference does not specifically disclose that any other known binders are useful in addition to those which are disclosed, and the prior art of record does not disclose the use of cellulose acetate butyrate in admixture with butyl nitratroethylnitramine as a binder, or the use of butyl nitrateethylnitramine as a binder in conjunction with basic copper nitrate as an oxidizer. Furthermore, butyl nitrateethylnitramine is disclosed in the prior art of record as a binder for gun propellants and rocket motors, rather than in an airbag composition. It is not clear that the Taylor reference, directed to airbags, is properly combinable with such references. On balance, it does not appear to have been obvious at the time that the invention was made to make compositions as presently recited.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
